From Saturday June 23, to Tuesday June 26, 1750.

Petersbourg, May 29.

ON Sunday last M. Wahrendorff, the new Prussian Minister Plenipotentiary, had his first private Audience of the Empress, and afterwards of the Great Duke and Dutches.

Petersbourg, June 2. The Empress has put off her Journey to Petershoff till after the Whitsun Holidays.

Civita Vecchia, June 10. The Pope's Gallies, which sailed from hence some Time ago in quest of the Corsairs of Barbary, are returned into Port, without having had the good Fortune to meet with any of them. As soon as they are re victualled, they will put to Sea again on another Cruize against the said Corsairs.

Rome, June 13. M. Giraud, having received his last Instructions, set out a few Days ago for Norcia, in Quality of Apostolick Commissary, in order to regulate, with the Deputies of the King of the Two Sicilies, the Limits of the Ecclesiastical State and those of the Kingdom of Naples. On Sunday last the Bishop of Ancone arrived here, and immediately repaired to Castel Gandolfo, to wait on the Pope; since which the Bishops of Sinigaglia and Faenza are also arrived.

Florence, June 13. Count Richcourt set out from hence last Monday for Pisa, from whence he will repair to Leghorn, to give some necessary Orders concerning the Marine. The Marquis de Hopital, Ambassador from France to the Court of the King of the Two Sicilies, arrived here on Tuesday last from Colorno, in Company with the Marquis de Ballay, and proposes setting out towards the End of next Week for Rome, on his Return to Naples.

Stockholm, June 18. On Monday last the Prince Successor reviewed the Regiment of Foot-Guards, the Cadets, and the Regiment of Artillery. This Morning an Express arrived here from Petersbourg, which occasioned the holding of an extraordinary Council in the Presence of the King and the Prince Successor; at the breaking up of which an Express was dispatched for Paris, and another for Berlin.

Warsaw, June 20. On the 17th Instant, the Deputies of the Citizens of Dantzick were admitted to an Audience of the King, when M. Remerson laid their Grievances against the Magistrates of that City before his Majesty; in Answer to which, the Deputies of the Magistrates have since presented a long Memorial to the Secretary of State. Letters from the Southern Provinces of this Kingdom continue to be full of the dismal Accounts of the Outrages committed by the Heyduck Cossacks. On the 25th past they scaled the Walls of the Town of Lactyzew, where they pillaged the Church and Convent of the Dominicans, from whence they took the Plate and other valuable Effects, and went off the next Morning at Break of Day, after having ill-treated the Religious who were in the Convent. The same Violences have been committed at Kopaygrod and Radomir, where they pillaged a Monastery of the Order of St. Bazile. Letters from Lithuania bring Advice of the Death of the Lady of Count Massalski, Castellan of Wilda, and Vice General of the Grand Duchy of Lithuania.

Vienna, June 20. His Imperial Majesty and Prince Charles of Lorrain are returned hither from the Journey they took the 15th Instant to Hollitsch. Her Imperial Majesty, in order to favour the Commerce of her Hereditary Countries, has abolished all the Duties which used to be paid along the Coast of the Danube. M. de Rosenberg, one of the Elector of Bavaria's Privy Councillors, is set out on his Return to Munich; and the Baron de Neuhaus, the new Bavarian Minister, is shortly expected here.

Franckfort, June 27. We learn by Letters from Spire and Worms, that great Damages have been done in the Neighbourhoods of those two Cities by the Overflowing of the Rhine.

Compeigne, July 1. The Grenadiers of France are to encamp here between the 8th and 10th Instant, in order to be reviewed by his most Christian Majesty, he having never seen them since they have been regimented.

Hague, July 2. His Serene Highness the Prince of Orange has appointed M. Hoyos, Major and Captain in the Regiment of Dragoons of General Trips, to be Lieutenant Colonel, and M. Wassenauer, a Captain in the same Regiment, to be Major thereof; and M. Hoyos's Company has been given by his Serene Highness to M. Marnette. The Prince of Brunswick-Bevern is arrived here, and the Prince of Baden-Durlach, Brother to the Margrave of that Name, is shortly expected. Mess. Van Dyk, Buteux, and Patras, Deputies to the Assembly of their High Mightinesses on the Part of the Provinces of Holland, Zealand, and Friesland, are named to make the annual Changes of the Magistrates of the several Cities and Towns of Dutch Flanders.

[Price Two-pence.]
